THE GOLDEN LION HOTEL

The hotel is like an icon in the town with its high profile location, next to the Town Hall, overlooking the green and the sea. Built in 1846, the hotel was the very first building in the town. Whilst it has been added to and recently modernised, it still holds on to its old world charm.

Recent refurbishment has given us a beautiful dining room and some lovely bedrooms, including Premier rooms overlooking the sea.

LOCAL INSIGHT

Norfolk is an undiscovered gem – we have no motorways in the county! Having lived here all my life I love the relaxed atmosphere, the beaches and the countryside.

The Royal Household at Sandringham, 5 minutes from the hotel, is worth a visit for both the house and beautiful gardens.

Along with Sandringham, we also have Holkham Hall, the Princess Theatre, our beautiful beaches and much, much more.

Pay us a visit and we'll be happy to help you choose the right places to visit.

“What a location you have here”

The “Lion Inn” public bar still attracts locals as well as guests, giving it a really vibrant feel, whilst those wanting a quiet spot can still find solitude in the residents’ bar.

The views across the green and The Wash are stunning and a real feature for us.
